

CLUNK

SIX EYED SPIDER

GORCE

GIVING PRESENTS

Your Mission: Help the Night Zookeeper deliver these presents to the animals and explain why you have given them

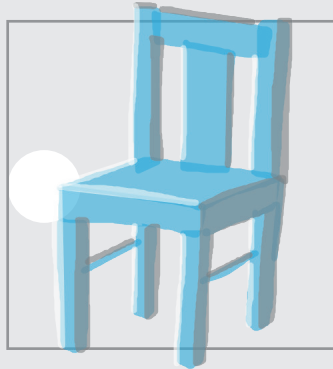

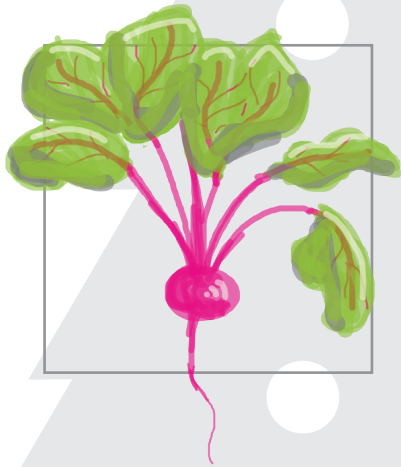

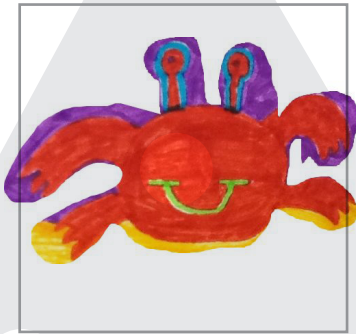

I have delivered a Dinosaur to Clunk because he is fascinated by them and has been studying them ever since he arrived in the Night Zoo two years ago.

The Six Eyed Spider has been given a tennis racket for Christmas as he has a big game lined up against a Crocheep this summer.

Gorce has been feeling cold this winter, so that is the reason why he has been given a nice warm jumper for Christmas.

A vibrant, stylized illustration of a salamander, possibly a Hellbender (Cryptobranchus alleganiensis), rendered in a cartoonish, pixelated art style. The creature is primarily green with numerous small pink and white spots. It has a large, broad head with a wide, orange mouth and a pink tongue. Its body is thick and tapers towards the tail. The tail is large and features prominent vertical stripes of pink and grey. The salamander is positioned diagonally within a simple black square frame.

This image shows a single page from a notebook or ledger. The page is white with light gray horizontal ruling lines spaced evenly apart. There are no vertical margin lines, and the page is completely blank except for the lines. The right edge of the page shows the binding of the book.

A stylized, colorful illustration of a character. The character has a head split vertically into blue (left) and pink (right) halves. It has yellow hair on both sides and large, grey, almond-shaped eyes. The body is green and triangular, with two red circular buttons. It has two brown, oval-shaped feet. The character is holding a long, horizontal orange stick with both hands. The stick has red bands or ties at each end. The entire illustration is set within a white rectangular frame with a grey drop shadow.
